

Pure-mind Buddhism Dharma Meeting

Hsinchu Prison held the Pure-mind Buddhism Dharma Meeting at 9 am on April 18 to 22. The purpose of this series of activity was to make inmates get supported in spirit and realize the truth of life and Buddhism. As the opening of the Dharma meeting, the warden of Hsinchu Prison appreciated for the enthusiastic contribution of the masters and volunteers. He also encouraged the inmates to follow the spirit of Buddha, and repented by wisdom at the rest of their life. At the last day of the Dharma meeting, Counsel Wu Yan-lun took charge of the meeting, and encouraged the inmates to read more Buddhism sutras through this opportunity. At last, he thanked the Miao-Guang Temple for their preaching.

Hsinchu prison held a total of 6 Buddhism Dharma Meeting in 5 days. Master Ru-zheng, Master Hai-zheng, Master Yuan-xin and Master De-ying were especially invited to preach to the inmates. We hoped that inmates could remember the kindness of others and repent in peace through the guide of religion, and face the challenge with wisdom after leaving Hsinchu Prison.
