

Life and Morality Education specific speech

Hsinchu Prison, agency of Corrections, Ministry of Justice held a specific speech at 2 pm on May 4. The speech was about life and morality education and the topic was “Mother’s Love”. Ex Chief Probation Officer of Taipei District Prosecutors Office, Mrs. Lin Mei-ying was invited to conduct the speech. Before the speech began, Counsel Wu Yan-lun appreciated that she continuously concerned of society and inmates after retirement. At the beginning of the speech, Mrs. Lin expounded the process and discomfort of giving birth, slowly guiding inmates into the theme – “Mother’s love”. In the speech, she mentioned that mother’s love for children is considered of equal value, and she also talked about how mothers defend their children with life in hard time.

Mrs. Lin prepared a touched film, describing the greatness and sacrifice of mother’s love. At last, she inspired inmates and enriched their life by her speech, and she expected that they could turn on a new leaf by the power of love. The speech ended perfectly at 4 pm.

