

Life and Moral Education specific speech

Hsinchu Prison, agency of Corrections, Ministry of Justice held the Life and Moral Education specific speech at 2 pm on May 13. The topic was “The Art of Speaking”. Ex Chief Probation Officer of Taipei District Prosecutors Office, Mrs. Lin Mei-jing was invited to give the speech. As the opening, Depute warden Zheng Bing-xian appreciated Mrs. Lin for her continuous care of society and inmates after the retirement.

The speech started by the film Mrs. Lin prepared. “Speaking is a kind of art, a technique, also a scholarship.” Mrs. Lin used simple words to teach inmates how to show the charm of speaking. “We exchange message, understand each other and pass down the culture through language, and it’s also the most frequent society behavior.” Mrs. Lin taught the inmates to use the technique of speaking in everyday life in a humorous way.

The charm of speaking, the attitude of speaking, the art of speaking and the skill of expression were all mentioned in Mrs. Lin’s speech. She hoped the inmates could become the expert of speaking and live an interesting life.

